AMANYANGYUN OPENS IN SHANGHAI

Aman will open its fourth property in China on October 27. Amanyangyun, meaning "nourishing cloud", is a collection of 26 Ming and Qing dynasty dwellings that have been relocated from a Jiangxi village 700km away that was being threatened by a reservoir construction. Reassembled and converted into luxury villas in a camphor forest just outside downtown Shanghai, 13 of the antique rooms together with 24 modern structures make up the resort, while 12 historic homes are available to buy. There is a full spa and six dining venues.

RITZ-CARLTON LANGKAWI

The second Ritz-Carlton in Malaysia will open on October 1. The new-build Ritz-Carlton Langkawi is located in a private bay surrounded by rainforest on the island's west coast and features 90 rooms and 29 pool villas, three swimming pools, a spa and three restaurants. The resort complements the hotel group's existing property in Kuala Lumpur.
